Ministry Philosophy

My passion in life is to exalt Jesus Christ and glorify God by putting into utmost use, the gifts and training that I have graciously received from the Lord. I am passionate about sharing the gospel with non-believers and helping believer to grow to maturity so that they in turn can be engaged in making disciples. I believe that the need for mature Christian is one of the Church's greatest needs. This can be achieved through planting Churches and equipping the saints to use their gifts and talents to serve God.
